It is rumoured, says the Chinese Mail, that the famous robber named Loyu chan, for whose arrest a heavy reward of $10,000 has long been offered by the Canton high authorities, has now been captured in the Heung Shan district by Chinese soldiers. It may be remembered that some years ago the Canton Government applied to the Hongkong authorities for the rendition of this gentleman. The Chinese mandarin who had charge of the case was as usual unable to present witnesses capable of standing cross-examination, and Lo yu char, who was defended by Mr Dennys, was accordingly discharged. Upon information given the other day a party of soldiers propool, left Singaporo yesterday morning for | ceeded to Heung Shan and attacked this noted brigand. After a desperate fight they at last succeeded in capturing him, but in a dying condition, owing to his having received several wounds in his body He was at once brought to Canton before Admiral Fong, who held a trial on him. Lo ye chan gave his real name and admitted voluntarily all his misdeeds, but soon afterwards died of his wounds.

CHINESE VISITING CARDS. Visiting is made most serious business in China, and every individual of respectability must have a servant to ca fy and present his cards. Chinese card is not a white, glazed, little bit of pasteboard, but a huge sheet of scarlet paper, with the name inscribed in large characters, the more mammoth-like the character, the more grand and respectable it is. Cards are of several kinds. There is. haler of the Anti-Revolutionary party in the plain card-a single sheet of scarlet paper-with the name written or stamped nearest the right-hand and topmost sides. This is employed on common occasions. Then there is the official card, mostly used by mandarins on visits of ceremony. This is also a single shee and it contains the France, Germany, Italy, or Russia, would name, preceded by the entire title, written here (Sing pore.) There is to be no review, down the centre, from top to bottom. Then, again, there is the full card, which is only produced en very grand occasions, such as Now Year, visits, visits of congratulation or condolence. The details are perhara best told in a lotter from Mr.E. Smith, late of Mesers Cargill & Co.'s establishment at Colombo, to friend here. Writing from Aden harbour he says :- Our voyage so far has been very pleasant as regards weather; with the exception of one night when we rolled very heavily. Sunday, 2nd Feb., was, however. marred by a very sad affair. Shortly after breakfast, when most people were enjoying the comfort of their chairs on deck, we were startled by the cry of Man overboard. IN TROUBLE AT COLOMBO. Yesterday afternoon, says the Ceylon Times of 15th February, Captain Bonnofor the Commander of the French mail steamer Diemirah, was arrested soon after noon whilst eketching within the Mutwal Battery. He appears, in company with sailor of the ship, to have entered the battery reaching it along the sea-shore, and to have scated himself on a campsiool to sketch. Whilst engaged sketching he was pounced on by the two gonners of Artil lery, named Watts and Brown, who are care-takers of the battery, and whose orders are not to allow enyone to enter it on any pretence. One of the gunners brought the Captain and the sailor in carriage to the French Consul's at the ur gent request of the Captain; and there ex plained how and why they were arr sted The gunner refused to give up the aketch book of which he had taken possession, and insisted that the Frenchmen must go beterday afternoon by Major Nash R. to, and Mr Dawson, acting for the Colonial Secretary, at the French.
